

SPOTLIGHT ON...

ROSENBERG & FAYNE LLP

Rosenberg & Fayne LLP was founded in 1995 by Eric Rosenberg & Peter Fayne. The two partners met while lawyers in a prominent Prince George's County law firm but believed passionately that they could begin a boutique litigation firm proudly serving the needs of the communities in Maryland and Washington, DC. In those early days, the firm remained small with only the two partners and a handful of support staff, but was dedicated to serving their clients in a variety of matters.

Over the past 26 years, the firm has grown to five attorneys and a support staff of paralegals, secretaries, assistants, and law clerks of over 25 dedicated professionals, and has various "Of Counsel" relationships. Today, the firm provides legal services in the varied areas of civil litigation, criminal defense, specialized litigation services, and securities & arbitration fraud. Over the past two and half decades, the firm has represented a varied group of clientele in some high profile and complicated matters in both civil and criminal litigation in the federal and state courts of Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Throughout its existence, the firm has had the privilege of contributing to and being an active member of the Prince George's County Bar Association. Early in their careers, both partners spent many hours contributing their time at local shelters in the community providing pro bono assistance to various individuals and were honored to be the recipients of the Pro Bono Lawyers of the Year Award in Prince George's County.

The firm is proud to be comprised of seasoned trial lawyers who have a wealth of professional knowledge and courtroom experience.

After graduating from George Washington University Law School with high honors, Eric Rosenberg began his legal career as a law clerk in both the District and Circuit Courts for Prince George's County. He then worked briefly for a large law firm in Prince George's County before entering private practice. Eric was named Maryland Trial Lawyer of the Year in 2019, has been listed in Super Lawyers for the past 13 years in the field of personal injury, and has been lecturing across the country on his use of non-economic results and trial strategy on complicated civil cases.

Peter Fayne began his legal career as an Assistant State's Attorney in Baltimore County. He later resigned in order to pursue his dream and train for the United States Olympic Track and Field Trials in the decathlon. Later, upon returning to the legal profession, Peter went into private practice and began his criminal defense career by working for the legendary attorney, Fred R. Joseph. Having practiced in the field of criminal defense for almost 30 years, Peter is listed in "The Best Lawyers in America" and recognized in Super Lawyers for both Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Kiran Najeeb is a Senior Associate and experienced trial lawyer who handles complex personal injury cases and has been named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers.

Natalie Selzer is an Associate Attorney who handles both civil and criminal matters in state and federal courts.

Ayah Innab is the firm's newest associate and is primarily focusing her talents in the area of criminal defense.

Rosenberg & Fayne LLP is proud of our history, reputation and being a member of the Prince George County Bar Association.
